How to Use This Book

Break out your crayons or colored pencils.

Turn off your phone, tablet, computer, whatever.

Find your favorite page in the book. That is the beginning.

Start coloring.

If you notice at any point that you have goosebumps, chills or that your pulse is pounding, take a deep breath and let the world hear your loudest, most blood-curdling scream. Remind yourself that coloring is usually stress-relieving, but during Halloween, it can be downright terrifying.

When you don't feel like it anymore, stop. After coloring, avoid exposure to direct sunlight for a period of time lasting - well, pretty much forever. (You might consider investing in a nice comfortable coffin to sleep in during the day.)

About the Artist

A lifelong artist, Teri Sherman has illustrated, crafted and colored countless projects throughout her career. Now residing and creating in the tiny Scottish village of Fochabers (no, that's not a curse word,) she uses her "crafty hands" to create art with a darker side. Her first coloring grimoire, Gothic Halloween, was published in October 2015 by Blue Star Coloring.

31 Halloween Patterns to COLOR

1. Break out your crayons or colored pencils.
2. Turn off your phone, tablet, computer, whatever.
3. Find your favorite page in the book. That is the beginning.
4. Start coloring.
5. If you notice at any point that you are forgetting your worries, daydreaming freely or feeling more creative, curious, excitable, delighted, relaxed or any combination thereof, take a deep breath and enjoy it. Remind yourself that coloring, like dancing or falling in love, does not have a point. It is the point.
6. When you don't feel like it anymore, stop.
